

Global Water 2020 Internship

NVF Project Name: Global Water 2020, an initiative of Advocates for Development Assistance

Position: Summer 2019 Intern

Location: Washington, DC

Status: Non-Exempt; Full Time (40 hours/week)

Position Summary

Global Water 2020 is a three-year advocacy and facilitation initiative designed to accelerate progress toward water access and security for all people in developing countries. Non-partisan and fully-funded, we are a catalyst working behind the scenes to increase U.S. and global public and private responses to a limited number of critical, under-resourced international water challenges.

Global Water 2020 is seeking a full-time intern (preferably seniors, graduate students, or recent graduates) to assist with a wide range of projects that support our advocacy, communications, facilitation and research efforts, including those related to the UN Secretary-General's Call to Action for WASH (Water, Sanitation, and Hygiene) in healthcare facilities, cholera, neglected tropical diseases, and hydro-diplomacy. Global Water 2020 interns will support the Principals and report to the Research Assistant.

Essential Responsibilities and Tasks

- Research U.S.-based and international non-profit, private sector and educational institutions working on global WASH and health efforts
- Develop inventory of global WASH and health funders
- Brainstorm and help identify domestic, regional and global collaboration opportunities
- Help write, edit, and format materials for meetings with Members of Congress
- Track global and regional convenings and assist in prioritizing which events Global Water 2020 should influence
- Maintain Global Water 2020's social media presence
- Support social media campaigns for global awareness days
- Assist Global Water 2020 team in all other duties as assigned

Required Education, Experience, Knowledge, Skills and Ability

Your interests and experience should include:

- Global WASH (Water, Sanitation, and Hygiene)
- Global water security
- Global public health
- Policy advocacy
- U.S. foreign policy
- International development
- Financing

The successful candidate will be a student (undergraduate senior or graduate student) or recent graduate in public health, environmental health, environmental studies, finance, business, political science, public policy, international relations, international development, anthropology, sociology or related field.

Our internships run during the summer or school semester. During the summer, we expect forty hours per week. This internship will be compensated at $15.00 per hour. You must be eligible to work or intern in the U.S. The Global Water 2020 office is located in the DuPont Circle area of Washington DC.

How to Apply

Please send a résumé and cover letter detailing your interests to Kelly Bridges at kbridges@globalwater2020.org.
